

COMUNICATO/ANNOUNCEMENT n. 03/2020

Fontanellato, 19 February 2020

Dear Colleagues,

We are pleased to inform you that in order to strengthen and develop our company to fully embrace important challenges, the Company has entrusted Mr. Mario Pepe with the role of Country Manager of the Americas, with the aim of developing the US market and coordinating business development in Central and South America and Canada, guaranteeing the launch of Dulevo Americas Inc. in Miami – the sales and logistics office with which Dulevo intends to strengthen its presence in these markets.

We have also deemed it important, together with the Management Team, to have Mr. Umberto Maria Cini join our team as Chief Commercial Officer, who is responsible for implementing the corporate business strategies in the near future, identifying the necessary organisational developments to ensure the continued growth of Dulevo over the coming years.

Umberto Maria Cini joins at a crucial time for our company.

He is a manager with extensive international experience, and his last position held was that as Head of Maserati Brand EMEA. During 27 years of experience in the automotive industry, Cini has held retail management roles at European level, as well as sales and management roles in the national and international markets.

We are pleased to give a warm welcome to Umberto Maria Cini, and confirm the full availability and trust of all personnel to cooperate to achieve the common corporate objectives and to perfect the current strategic repositioning, which will allow the company to face new challenges of the global market successfully.

UMBERTO MARIA CINI
